Dear Ms. Wood,

I'm often kind to people and like to help them. I love sports and listen to music. I'm often happy with my life. The problem is my brother. He's a high school student. He goes to school on Mondays and comes back home on Fridays. When he is at home, he likes to criticize everything. He often comes into my room and asks me to clean my room. He also teaches me how to study every subject because he thinks my grades are not good. All that I do is wrong. I am really sad.

We used to do a lot of things together. Now I don't want to do anything with him. I am beginning to hate him. I want him not to be at home all the time. Can you help me with the problem?

Best wishes,

Cody
